Losing a Loved One

Guide for Families

Help with your next steps to claim VRS benefits

Losing a loved one is difficult. VRS offers help for survivors and beneficiaries claiming VRS benefits after a loss.

Members and retirees can use this brochure as a planning resource. Keep a copy with your will and other important documents, and review it with your loved ones.

If Your Loved One Dies While Employed

Contact the member's employer. The employer will help coordinate claims for any benefits due. Examples of VRS benefits include:

- Life insurance.
- Payment of any retirement contributions in the member's defined benefit member contribution account, a monthly benefit or both.
- Any funds in a VRS Defined Contribution Plan, if the employee participated.

If Your Loved One Dies While Retired

Securian Financial, insurer for the VRS Group Life Insurance Program, can initiate all VRS benefit claims and will provide information to VRS for processing any benefits due. Examples include:

- Life insurance.
- Payment of any remaining contributions in the retiree's defined benefit account.
- Any funds in a VRS Defined Contribution Plan, if the employee participated.

For more information, call Securian Financial at 800-441-2258.

If Your Loved One Dies in the Line of Duty

If your loved one was an employee or volunteer who died in the line of duty, you may be eligible for state or federal benefits. For more information:

If Your Loved One Is Terminally Ill

The accelerated death benefit is paid while a member or retiree is still living. Eligible members or retirees diagnosed with a terminal condition with fewer than 12 months to live can withdraw some or all of their life insurance proceeds to use for any purpose. A beneficiary or survivor will receive any remaining amount upon the member's or retiree's death. For more information, call Securian Financial, 800-441-2258.

Taxation of Benefits

Any distributions a beneficiary or survivor receives will be subject to federal and state income taxes. See the IRS 402(f) Special Tax Notice available at varetire.org/forms.

Claiming Benefits:

What You Will Need

- Your loved one's full name, Social Security number and date of death, and a mailing address where claim information can be sent.
- Original or certified copy of the death certificate.

What You May Need

- If benefits are to be paid to an estate: Original or certified letter of qualification issued by the Circuit Court.
- If benefits are to be paid to a trust: Copies of trust agreement establishing a trust and appointment of an individual trustee.
- If benefits are to be paid to a minor child: Copy of guardianship appointment for the minor child's estate.
- If benefits are to be paid to a non-minor beneficiary, who has a designated attorney-in-fact to handle his or her affairs: Copy of power-of-attorney document.
- If your loved one died in an automobile crash while actively employed: Copy of police report for the seatbelt benefit, if eligible.
